III. DETAILED ACTION

Claims Presented

Claims 1-89 are presented for examination.

Response to Arguments

On September 23, 2002, Applicants argued that the request under Rule 1.105 should be made more specific. Thus: specifically, Applicants are requested provide any and all knowledge regarding any prior art regarding the subject matter in the specification (especially the claimed subject matter). Even more specifically, Applicants are requested to provide any and all knowledge regarding any discussion regarding prior art which may have any bearing on this application being filed despite the original application having been allowed and matured into a U.S. patent.

Request under Rule 1.105

The applicant is hereby requested to provide references or any other information under Rule 1.105. This request refers to all sections of Rule 1.105.

Under MPEP 704.13, two months of shortened statutory period is set for reply.
